CRITERION I – CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 – Curriculum Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 – Institution has the mechanism for well planned curriculum delivery and documentation. Explain in 500 words

The institution is focused on educational excellence and fosters in student teachers the habit of analytical and reflective thought and sensitivity to the environmental and social issues. In order to achieve the primary goal of imparting necessary knowledge, attitude and skills to the student teachers to function effectively in their teaching profession, the institution has to follow mandatorily the curriculum prescribed by Guru Nanak Dev University. Our academic session is meticulously planned ensuring timely preparation of academic calendar, time table and distribution of courses. Periodic assessment of students is undertaken through assignments and tests in a time-bound manner. Syllabi taught across the programme are based on latest trends. Academic calendar of the institution showing list of activities performed throughout the session is prepared as per the schedule provided by the university which is featured in college handbook for smooth functioning of the session providing information to faculty and students in advance. The time table committee prepares and communicates the time table prior to the commencement of the academic session. Curriculum development is a collaborative process. For prioritizing deep learning and better achievement time table committee along with academic council work collaboratively to plan the teaching schedule with greater flexibility and ensure smooth functioning of the college. Smaller group of students are created, so that academic and other discussions are individualised. Interdisciplinary approach and sensitivity to all sectors of society towards form a significant aspect of our vision of providing transformative education to women. Various innovative techniques like team-teaching, cooperative teaching, ICT based teaching, project method, experiential learning, brain storming are used by teacher educators. Through teacher's diary the road map for quantitative teaching and qualitative evaluation is prepared. University question papers are discussed after completion of every unit to ensure the progress of teaching programme. Regular feedback from student teachers, parents, alumnae and school principals also ensure appropriate action towards addressing any gap in student progression and fulfilling the curricular criterion. To fulfill the professional needs of the students, lesson plans are developed by modelling pedagogy through the use of not just reading and lectures, but role plays, case studies and collaborative teaching. Besides this, student teachers are giving opportunity to attend seminars/workshops/extension lectures/orientation programmes, morning assemblies, celebration of special days, quiz competition, excursion etc. More emphasis is given to employability skills because the motive is to make them self- dependent.

The growth of any educational body rests on a well-structured, organized feedback mechanism which in turn depends upon 'holistic planning' with distinct macro and micro goals. Our college has stood as firm advocate of Feedback Mechanism. The Institution collects feedback on curriculum aspects from different stakeholders such as students, teachers, employers, alumni and parents through well structured feedback proformas. Feedback collected from stakeholders is analyzed and based on the outcomes, modifications are made pertaining with respect to various aspects such as curriculum, teaching-learning process, internship and assessment. The following ways are used for analyzing and utilization of feedback:-

Students: Students provide feedback regarding the entire programme, the teacher's performance, curriculum transaction, methodology used, tutorial system through feedback proformas. The results of the final examinations are used as reflective indicators of the strengths and weaknesses of the courses and curriculum. Feedback obtained is analysed by the committee and then suggestions given by students are incorporated in the related areas. Concern teacher is also suggested to incorporate the suggestions given by students.

Faculty: On the basis of information collected through feedback, teachers suggestions are used for development of different learning strategies. The approach of 'Constructive Feedback' is followed. This also enhances a student's self-efficiency and provides an avenue for motivation. Faculty meetings on periodic basis are held for taking suggestions and implementing the same for productive outcomes.

Feedback from the heads of practicing schools: Through feedback proforma the principals of the practicing schools are asked to fill in their observations regarding the talents demonstrated by the pupil teachers during their internship programme. Their suggestions are incorporated and implemented in next teaching practice.

Feedback from Alumnae: The alumnae association of the college organizes annual meetings during which the old students of the college, who are employed as teacher/heads/administrators also suggest improvement for the functioning of the programmes (curricular as well as Co-curricular). The Alumni Association also provides its support and expertise when needed in the conduct of various programmes in the institution.
