2.2.1 Student Satisfaction Survey

The student satisfaction survey was administered to the students and the results analysed to ensure the degree of satisfaction of the students towards the B.Ed./M.Ed./D.Ed./P.G.D.C.A. programme in general and the courses imparted in particular. Overall, it was inferred from the analysis of student feedback proforma. The overall infrastructure provided by the institution is satisfying. The remedial teachings are organised in every semester for weak students. The library facilities for the course are adequate. Students are equally involved in the development of teaching-learning process. Sufficient efforts are made by the college to enhance the quality of teaching and learning. Co-curricular activities are given equal importance to ensure personality development of the students. There is flexibility in the time table as per the requirements of the students. Students' problems are conveyed and discussed with the principal properly. Variety in the menu of canteen is required. More relaxation in returning of issued books to students is suggested.
